Provider Name	Family Connection Street Outreach
Provider Description	A street outreach and drop-in day shelter for homeless youth in Birmingham. We are committed to protecting runaway and homeless youth and reuniting them with their families whenever possible. We provide young people the resources to get off the streets and stabilize their lives. Family Connection maintains a culture where the dignity of every youth is respected and all youth feel safe. We believe every youth that comes to us has the right to receive services regardless of race, religion, gender, gender identity or expression, disability, or sexual orientation. Transportation to Hope House is provided for those who will accept it. Street Outreach: Our vetted Street Outreach Team is on Birmingham's streets, talking to young people about shelter options, educating them about community resources, and handing out food, clothes, and hygiene packs. They are also trained and equipped to administer minor first aid. Drop-In Day Shelter: The Day Shelter provides a safe, restful place for homeless youth and helps them begin moving out of homelessness. Services include access to a hot meal, clothing, personal care items, shower and laundry facilities, and a place to rest. There is also a Social Worker to assist youth in developing a plan for their future.
